IMR

Irish Marxist Review 23

Our Contributors:

John Molyneux is editor of the Irish Marxist Review and author of a number of books including What is the Real Marxist Tradition? , The Point is to Change It!, and Lenin for Today.

Adrienne Wallace has a BA Hons in Humanities and is a full time organiser with People Before Profit in the South East.

Stephanie Hanlon lectures in politics. Her research interests include citizenship and gender. She is a member and activist in the Socialist Worker Network and People Before Profit.

Marnie Holborow writes on language and politics, was a leading activist in the Repeal campaign and a member of People Before Profit and the Socialist Workers Network.

Owen McCormack is a trade union and socialist activist and researcher with People Before Profit in Dáil Eireann.

Stewart Smyth works as an academic at Sheffield University Management School, where he is a UCU union rep; he lives in Dublin and is a member of People Before Profit.

Ciarán O'Rourke is a member of People Before Profit. His poems have been widely published in print and online. His first collection, The Buried Breath, was published in 2018 by Irish Pages Press.

Andy Durgan is a socialist historian. He has lived in Barcelona since 1982 and is author of The Spanish Civil War, Palgrave, Basingstoke 2007.

Christian Hogsbjerg teaches history at the University of Brighton and is a member of the editorial board of International Socialism. He is the author of C.L.R. James in Imperial Britain (Duke University Press, 2014).

Kieran Allen is National Secretary of People Before Profit and author of numerous books including The Politics of James Connolly and 1916: Ireland's Revolutionary Tradition.

Paul O'Brien writes on history, politics and literature and is author of Shelley and Revolutionary Ireland and The 1913 Lockout

Seamus O'Kane is a socialist from Belfast with a Masters in English Literature at IT Tallaght and currently an activist in Dublin South Central.